BOLD BANDITS

MADE OGDEN
Two Citizens Held Up Last Evening on One of the Main Thoroughfares.

HANDS UP OR DOWN AT WILL

VICTIMS WERE AFRAID TO SQUEAL.

One of the most daring hold-ups that occurred in Ogden happened last evening shortly after 10 o'clock, when three men were held up and robbed near the tabernacle by two highwaymen. After their valuables were taken the three men were forced to retreat with a warning that they should not be too hasty in notifying the police.

I. Sanders and Ernest Lindquist were walking south on Washington avenue, when the two robbers stepped forth and before they realized what was up, two revolvers were shoved in their faces with the command that they throw up their hands. The men obeyed without hesitation, after which the two men were ordered to walk north in advance of the robbers toward Twenty-first street. After going but a short distance R. E. Parker came along and he was forced to join Sanders and Lindquist with his hands in the air.

Under Good Control.

Before they reached Twenty-first street, several men came along and while passing this party the trio were forced to put their hands down and march by in silence. While one of the robbers remained behind, covering the three with his gun, the other searched their pockets and relieved Lindquist of a $35 watch. It so happened that Lindquist had no money on his person and the highwaymen did not hesitate to express their disappointment. They left the three men with instructions to walk back the way they had come, after which the two robbers fled across lots in the direction of the railroad yards.

Long and Short Man.

From a description the police are able to secure, one was a tall and the other a short man. Dark handkerchiefs were used to conceal their faces. From the manner in which the robbery was committed and the meager description secured it is believed the robbers are the same who have been operating in Salt Lake and are professionals at the business.

Funeral Services.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Mrs. Mary Campbell, at the North Ogden meeting-house 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Bishop Ward officiated and the music was furnished by members of the North Ogden ward choir. The speakers were Elders Ellis Reynolds, Brown and Bishop Warren. The interment was in North Ogden.

ALTRUISTIC LOAN FUND.

Jewesses Start a Bank That Loans Money Without Interest.

(New York Sun.)
Some Jersey City Jewesses whose husbands, fathers, sons and daughters have acquired local reputations for shrewdness in mercantile pursuits have gone into the business of lending money to certain persons financially embarrassed with a charge of one per cent interest. The charity banking institution was incorporated yesterday at County Clerk John Rotherham's office under the name of the "Ladies' Free Loan Association of the Junction in Jersey City, N. J."

The objects of the association are "to collect money as dues from its members to take and hold personal and real estate, and to convert the property into cash and to loan such cash to poor, needy and deserving persons as it shall deem proper, without said persons, the borrowers, paying any interest for said loans." The incorporators are Dora Weiss, Sarah Max, Annie Harris, Jennie Schustein, M. Madewill, Bertha Handler and Augusta Max.

Mrs. Dora Weiss, the president, who lives at 227 Montgomery street, was named in the certificate of incorporation as the agent for the association, of whom processes may be served. She was not at home when a reporter in search of light called to see her. Mrs. Jennie Schustein greeted the caller out of the basement window and said that her husband, the tailor on the floor above, knew all about the Ladies' Free Loan association, and would be glad to tell what it was like.

"The ladies," the tailor said, "organized the society about four years ago and have lent $800 without interest in that time. They still have $100 in the treasury. There are now eighty members, all Jewesses, and the monthly dues are 25 cents. When persons, no matter of what nationality, get hard up, all they have to do is to apply for a loan and they will get it in five minutes, providing they give a note indorsed by a responsible business man. There must be an indorsed note or they won't by any loan. The money is paid back in small amounts, according to the arrangement made by the borrower, and no money is lent for a longer time than ten weeks, although exceptions sometimes made. Only worthy poor people have any chance to borrow, and the purpose of the ladies is to relieve distress and furnish funds when cash is most needed.

"Do many persons default in their payments?"

"The notes are all indorsed. The association won't get stuck unless all the people shouldn't pay up."

Mrs. Israel Max is treasurer of the association. Tailor Schustein said that Mr. Max has plenty of money and lots of time on his hands and is greatly interested in helping the women out in their enterprise of lending money just for the fun of the thing.

WILL LEAP THE GAP.

"Diavolo," the dare-devil of the Salt Palace, will leap the gap for the first time at that resort this evening at 8 o'clock, free of admission. He rides down an incline of seventy-five feet on a bicycle and leaps a distance of twenty-five feet in midair, landing in a net, still on his wheel.

The Olympia Opera company, which begins a summer's engagement at the Salt Palace theater next Thursday evening, is due to arrive in Salt Lake from Portland, Ore., this morning.

Dr. Keith has resumed his dental practice, 502 Scott building, 163 Main.

WORK IS GREATLY DELAYED

Harriman System Finding Difficulty in Securing Material for Ogden Improvements.

The bids for the parking of the union depot grounds from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-sixth street are now in the hands of General Superintendent L. Buckingham at Salt Lake and the award will probably be made directly after the return of that official from the north. There are about ten bidders for this work, which will be taken up as soon as the contract has been awarded. The railroad officials have ordered twenty carloads of gravel to be sent to Ogden, which will be used for the walks and driveways. When completed the graveling of the grounds, being done at the request of the Ogden Civic Improvement league, will cost the railroad company approximately $12,000.

The other improvements being made by the Harriman system is being somewhat delayed on account of the inability of the company to secure sufficient material and help. Much of the work has been started and it is likely that one-half of the improvements will be completed this year. Within a short time the hauling of gravel from the new cut-off across the Sand ridge, to be used for the purpose of filling in the new passenger yard, will be commenced. As soon as the trackage is down in the passenger yards the work of constructing the umbrella sheds will be taken up, although some difficulty has been experienced in placing the contract for the sheds. The scarcity of lumber has also affected the improvements to a great degree. The remodeling of the union depot is practically at a standstill on this account. The family and freight depot, upon which the work has not yet been started, will be on the order of the new building in Salt Lake, excepting that the office building will be considerably larger, the office force at this point being greater than that employed in Salt Lake. The Harriman officials state that the improvements as planned will all be made. The time in which they will be completed will largely depend upon the ability of the company to secure the material and men to do the work.

WATER RIGHT PURCHASED.

Harriman System Will Run Pipe Line From Taylor's Canyon.

The purchasing of a water right by the Union Pacific in Taylor's canyon, from which they intend by the use of their own plant and pipe-line to supply all the water for the Harriman line in Ogden, has brought to light the fact that substantially the same proposition was under consideration some time ago by the state industrial school located here. The trustees of the institution had begun negotiations for this property but the price could not be agreed upon. Had the school secured this water right they would have constructed a plant on the site from which they would have furnished the water as well as power for the institution. This matter was taken up by the trustees when they, after endeavoring for a long time to get the water company to extend their mains to the school property, decided that it would be necessary for them to secure an independent water supply. When these negotiations fell through another water supply was secured, which furnished sufficient water for the school, although the furnishing power for the manual training department is not included. Both of these concerns are water users and by establishing independent plants they have cut off a substantial revenue from the Ogden Waterworks company.

INSURANCE POLICY FOUND.

Colored Man Killed in Ogden Left $2,000 to a Sister.

In searching the effects of C. C. Lockhart, the colored man who was shot and killed last Saturday, a $2,000 insurance policy was found. The beneficiary named in the document is a sister of Lockhart's, residing in the south. An effort will be made to locate this woman before the funeral is held. It was not known before that Lockhart had any relatives and city arrangements for the holding of the funeral today have been cancelled. The insurance policy was only taken out in April last.

Made Rapid Time.

Sam Sharman, the former ticket broker who has recently closed his office in Ogden, made a very rapid time, coming up from Salt Lake in his big auto. Mr. Sharman had as his guests on the return trip W. G. Kay, Will Howard, Perry Herick. The trip from Twenty-fifth and Washington to Sharman's office on West Temple street, Salt Lake, was made in the fast time of one hour and twenty-four minutes.

Typhoid Fever Victim.

John Erickson, aged about 50 years, a resident of Battlement, died at the Ogden general hospital shortly before noon yesterday from an attack of typhoid fever. He had been at the hospital but one day prior to his demise. The remains will be held at the Ritchie undertakers until his relatives are heard from.

Suffered a Relapse.

Heber Gale, who some time ago was released from the state mental hospital at Provo, has been again surrendered to the county authorities and will be returned to that institution today.

Fair Warning.

DeYoung—Yes, sir.
Peckem—Hem! Are you aware that she strongly resembles her mother?
DeYoung—I am, sir.
Peckem—Then take her, young man, and—er—be as happy as you can.

PADS BARRED.

That woman has been the same in all ages in her efforts to ensure the unsuspecting male by artificial aids is proved by an old English statute, passed 236 years ago by parliament. So far reaching was the havoc wrought among sexless beings by the devices of cunning females that the men were forced to seek the protection by the law, as is shown by the statute in question, which reads as follows:

"That all women, of whatever age, rank, degree or profession, whether virgins, maids or widows, that shall from and after the passing of this act impose upon and betray into matrimony any of his majesty's male subjects by scents, paints, cosmetics, washes, artificial teeth, black hair, Spanish wool, iron stays, hoops, high-heeled shoes or bolstered hips, shall incur the penalty of the law now in force against witchcraft, sorcery and such like misdemeanors, and that the same shall, upon conviction, shall stand null and void."

Judging by the forceful wording and the specification of minute details, it seems that some of the members of parliament had been "stung."

ROW AMONG NEIGHBORS.

Hot Weather Has Disastrous Effect in Park City.

Park City, July 27.—Things are humming a little in Ontario canyon just above the city limits. The entire trouble is to be threshed out in the local justice's court in a day or so. A family row has been raging intermittently for some time, and last evening it seems to have blazed forth with more than usual fury. As a direct result of the extra heat a warrant was today issued for one L. J. Gillis upon a complaint sworn to by Mrs. John Muehley charging said Gillis with threatening to kill her and her family, together with a general charge of disturbing the peace. Gillis claims that he acted entirely upon the defensive, and it is likely that the arrest of Gillis is only one of the many which will result. The case will be heard next week.

The local members of the Woodmen of the World are now making arrangements for a big excursion to be run to Lagoon on the 17th of August.

George Robinson, sr., is critically ill.

The Ontario mine is shipping several carloads of ore to the mine and is now working with a diminished force, owing to the tunnel difficulty, but there is still much ore being taken out of the upper levels.

The new contract of attending to the city scavenger work will be begun on the 1st. Mr. Hesnan the successful bidder will put on two teams at that time and from then on it is expected that the work will be done cheaper than formerly.

About forty citizens of Park City who attended the excursion to Salt Lake yesterday missed the train, and accordingly the morning train was taxed to its limit.

Superintendent Martin of the local schools is busily engaged in making the school census for the year. The investigation shows an increase in the school population, and accordingly room is being made to handle the extra pupils.

Mrs. Greene was left a widow about two years ago with a family of young children, and the boy was just getting on in his school work. He was a bright boy of a loving disposition, and made friends with everybody he came in contact with. The casket was literally buried in flowers. ## CELEBRATION AT MOAB.

Anniversary of Arrival of the Pioneers Observed.

Moab, Utah, July 25.—The arrival of the Utah pioneers in the valley of the great Salt Lake fifty-nine years ago, was fittingly and appropriately remembered in Moab yesterday. The day was ushered in by the firing of the national salute of twenty-one guns. Next came a monster parade of a band of pioneers and their families with band carts and so forth, headed by twenty-four couples in horseback, dressed in stars and stripes. Then there was an elaborate literary and musical program. The afternoon was taken up with amusements for the children, and a basketball game for the girls. In the evening the committee furnished a grand pyrotechnical display, followed by a big dance.

Today there have had horse races, human races and contests of every description, with a baseball game between the Moabites and the suffering public as a final number.

CATHEDRAL FOR BROOKLYN.

The Project Cherished for More Than Half a Century is Now Assured.

(New York World.)

On the top of Crow hill in Prospect park section of Brooklyn, now occupied by the buildings of Kings county penitentiary, with this end at a cost of $5,000,000 a stately Catholic cathedral, following in its architecture the beauty and grace of Notre Dame de Rouen, one of the most celebrated cathedrals in France. Work will be under way next spring.

The Right Rev. Charles E. McDonnell, bishop of Brooklyn, is the purchaser. He was compelled to pay high prices for the property. The total for the pentecostal site and for contiguous lots constituting the entire city block was $25,175.

The Vanderbilt avenue site, purchased forty years ago, and on which the foundation for the Catholic cathedral was laid, will, it is said, be sold to the Jesuits for a college site.

When Bishop McDonnell believed that the time had arrived to give to Brooklyn a cathedral, he planned to rear the handsome structure in Greater New York. With this end in view, the bishop and Manager John I. Barrett inspected the famous churches of Europe during a recent trip abroad. Impressed with the beauty of Notre Dame de Rouen, they agreed that Brooklyn should have a cathedral as near like it as possible. Returning home, Bishop McDonnell had plans drawn on the line of Rouen's celebrated church.

Notre Dame de Rouen was begun about the year 1200, but was not completed until the sixteenth century. It is in plan a Latin cross with aisles surrounding it completely, and giving access to the three great chapels of the choir. Striking features are great central doorway, a rose window and numerous arcades and Gothic pinnacles and turrets.

The Catholic population of Brooklyn is now estimated at 500,000.

New York Still a Country Town.

(New York Evening Post.)

New York hasn't lost all semblance of a country town. In the first three months of 1906 no less than 23,621 dead animals were found in the streets, besides 18,584 stray cats and dogs that were taken to the public pounds and there done to death. That dead horses, cows, cats and dogs should so litter the streets is perhaps not so remarkable, but it is just a little surprising that the list should also include pigs (24), goats (2) and sheep (51), which argues that the city must still have some of the aspects of a rural community. It is perhaps germane to the subject to add that the city is advertising a sale by auction of a large quantity of grass on land near the new Croton reservoir, said grass to be sold "as it stands."
